There are a few pulseless Mugwumps o know nothing of political enthusion, but with the great multitude it is animating force in elections."

The True Reason.

Many and various reasons for the defeat of the Republican party in this State are given by our Republican and Mug-wamp contemporaries.

The bloody shirt did it, says one. The The bloody shifted it, says one. The weather was to blame, says the second. The Republicans were too confident and neglected to stir up the party, says a third. The shubbling of the Mugwumps was enough to account for it, says a fourth. The liquor men secretly stabled was enough to account for it, says a fourth. The liquor men secretly stabled Davesport, says a filt.

And as they so on. But Gen. Knapp of Auburn, once Treasurer of the Republican State Committee, beats them all in finding out the true reason. "The result proves conclusively to me," says he, "what I have held for some time, that the State of New York has been Democratic for the past filteen years." With a unlied Democrat as a leader, New York is now a sure Democratic State, and so it will remain.

The Republicans were beaten because they were in the minority, and they will be beaten the next time for the same they were in the minority, and they will be beaten the next time for the same reason. New York belongs to the Democrats.—[New York Bun.

The Ney York Post, in its issue of the 4th instant, says: "One result of yesterday's voting will be halled with rejoicing by all friends of honest politics, without distinction of party, throughout the country. Mahone was buried in Virginia heyond the possibility of resurrection, the Democrais unto only defeating his candidate for Governor, by a great majority, but also carrying the Legislature, which he had been concerned to the same proposed to supreme control over one of the chief States in the Union by the worst appeals to ignorance and cupidity.
